By PEGGY ELLEN COLE

Greetings, everyone!

Here we are just two weeks from the end of school, and things are really buzzing. The seniors are having their exams this week in order that they will have a chance to practice for graduation next week. That's why you see them studying more than usual. The rest of the student body will have their exams Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The exam schedule is as follows:

Monday
Exam 1, 6 Classes 2, 5
Tuesday
Exam 2, 5 Classes 3, 4
Wednesday
Exam 3, 4 Classes 1, 6

Next week the seniors will have quite a full schedule. I am sure that their last week of school will be one never to be forgotten. The program for the week follows:

Sunday, June 1, Baccalaureate at Liberty Baptist Church. The Rev. Herbert N. Tucker will bring the message.

Wednesday, June 4, Senior Chapel. Announcement of annual staff, presentation of senior gift. Class night: "The Past is Now."

Thursday, June 5, Junior - Senior dinner—dance, at the high school cafeteria.

Friday, June 6, Graduation. Congressman W. M. Abbitt, speaker. Presentation of diplomas by Principal H. E. Kerr.

The Music Appreciation and the Latin Classes presented their annual double-feature Tuesday night. The Latin play consisted of one - act plays, illustrating latin customs. The music appreciation play was centered around the "Gay Nineties"theme.

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y held its last meeting of the school year Monday. The boys Hi-Y attended the meeting to complete plans for the picnic. After the business was taken care of, Sylvia Burks turned the meeting over to Lora Fleshman, the new president.

The Monogram Club will have its annual picnic Friday at Holliday Lake. We hear that Coach Gordon Bragg is going to fry all of the hamburgers for the picnic. They should be good.

The F. B. L. held its last meeting of the year Tuesday. At that meeting the new editor of the "Commercial Appeal" was announced. She is Lora Fleshman.

This covers the news for this week. I will be back next week with my last news column from A. H. S. Until then, so long.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN 4-H LIVESTOCK PROJECT

Teddy Mitchell, Appomattox 4-H of $60.09 in an Appomattox County pure-bred livestock contest sponsored commercially.

Second prize of $25.00 went to Phillip Scruggs of the Vera 4-H Club; third prize of $15.09 to Donald Franklin, Appomattox Junior 4-H Club, and 4th prize of $5.00 was won by William Smith of the Appomattox Senior 4-H Club.

The sponsor every years conducts a "pig-chain project" for boys and a garden project for girls. Operating through the Virginia Agricultural Extension Service and the county agents, the sponsor seeks to improve the caliber of livestock and at the same time provide income to rural youth so that they may learn the principles of money-making through their own and becoming owners of the farm and home.

In the purchase of registered Duroc gilts, each of five Appomattox County 4-H boys each year appoints a selection agents, and the agents, who also award prizes in dairy and poultry raising and management, in turn, the boys have a choice son from which to go to another year. Thus, the pig-chain project.

Army Wants Serge Suited Soldiers; Uses Trial Plan

Some of the Army's "soldiers" wear blue serge suits.

These white collar workers, employed in the Army's Civilian Personnel Division, now are being selected for the military service through a new two-way, on-the-job training program.

In the unique plan, selected students of government administration are given positions in their chosen field on an eight-week trial basis during their summer vacation period. The students are given a chance to work at a job while evaluating for themselves the advantages of a career in Army administration.

The program, initiated with a group of 15 college students this year, is similar to a plan used for three years by Army to "recruit" civilian personnel qualified as scientists and engineers. This summer 366 technical students worked at military installations throughout the country in those capacities.

Although the first experimental group of administration students worked in offices in the Pentagon, Washington, D. C., it is planned that the expansion of the program will include more students and assign them to field installations, similar to the placement of the technical aspirants.

Selection of the students who desire assignment, after the trial period, is expected to be based on examinations given by the U. S. Civil Service Commission. The administration students, like the ones in science and engineering, will be considered for the jobs they best fit, their training in business and public administration or in social science being taken into consideration.

War and Peace

Development of the flame thrower, which first became a military weapon during World War II and has been used extensively by the Army in Korea, led to the peacetime perfection of a highly proficient weed killer. Tests at the Army Chemical Corps Center, at Edgewood, Maryland, proved that a thin jet of burning, jellied gasoline would kill weeds between rows of plants without harming the plants themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Gowin entertained with a picnic at Miller Park in Lynchburg in honor of the fifteenth birthday of their son, Omer. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. E. Gowin and family, Mrs. Roy Vanderpool, Raymond and Bettie Jane Vanderpool, Jean and Hazel Johnson, of Farmville; Phyllis Hawk and Betty, Billie Dare, Tommy Puckett; Rachel, Kate, Nannie Bell and Hunter Goin.

Scented Before Seen No Longer True In this Case

AKRON, O.—The nation's communities—large and small—can look forward to conquering the age-old problem of garbage trucks which usually can be scented before they are seen.

At the request of Akron officials, B. F. Goodrich engineers have developed a special air- and water-tight rubber gasket for the rear door of covered trucks in the rubber capital of the world. Now in use on the city's garbage collection trucks, they resemble the rubber seal on a refrigerator door and prevent both the content and the unpleasant odor from escaping.

Miller manager, Bolling Lambeth charges Senator Byrd with lack of courage and energy.
